

Admission requirements International students Fast-Track Bachelor Programme

Foreign applicants need to have a secondary school diploma, allowing them to go to university (or German Fachhochschule) in their own country, plus a diploma of a course in hospitality of at least two years full-time. An official internship in a 4 to 5 star hotel, with a duration of at least 16 weeks in FB or Rooms Division, should be part of this program. Please do keep in mind that your internship should be approved by the Exam Committee. The check list used by the Exam Committee is presented here.

Candidates must have academic qualifications enabling them to follow Higher Professional Education, in accordance with the guidelines specified by an independent body such as:

(Fach-) Abitur + Ausbildung specialization (Germany)
Reife- und diplomprüfungszeugnis / tourismusschule (Austria)
Baccalauréate + Brevet de Technicien Supérieur in Hotel Management (France)

2nd Modern foreign language A1 requirement

In order to meet the requirements for Fast Track, candidates are required to have completed a second modern foreign language during their secondary school.

In the case you have not completed a second modern foreign language or completed Latin during your secondary education you will need to complete the A1 language level requirement before the start of the preparation course.

Accepted documents for the A1 level:

- 1) A certificate from an official language institute on level A1 or higher which is no more than 5 years old.
- 2) Official proof of passing the chosen second language in high school on a A1 Level. The high school graduation certificate should not be more than 5 years old.
- 3) Official proof of enrollment and successful completion of 1 year at a high school of which the education is not provided in the student's native language. For example a German student following 1 year of higher education in French

English requirements international students

Applicants with a foreign degree must show proficiency in English. Those who have followed at least two years full-time education with English as the language of instruction in the preceding three calendar years are deemed to have fulfilled this requirement. Those applicants to whom this does not apply, must submit sufficient scores of one of the following tests listed in the overview below. The English test must be obtained in the last two years to be considered.
